WILDCATS INVADE ENEMY LINES FOR SECOND TIME; TO FACE VANDY ELEVEN

Cats Determined to Make Good Showing in Debut at New Dudley Stadium

DEPART AMID CHEERS

Rousing Yells Given Team As They Board Special For Southland

The Wildcat eleven left Thursday afternoon at 5:40 for Nashville, where they will clash with the Vanderbilt Commodores Saturday. This will be the first showing of the Cats in the new Dudley Stadium and the Blue and White griders are determined to make their initial appearance one to be long remembered. About 20 men, Coach Juneau, "Daddy" Boles, Manager Cammack and Doctor Lipscomb made up the Kentucky party that boarded the special car amid the cheers from the students gathered to see them off and to wish them good luck.

The Cats came out of the Centre scrap in excellent shape and have been working hard for the Commodore tilt. Although Kentucky has yet to boast of a victory over Vandy and has scored only twice against the Nashville eleven, the Wildcats bid fair to make history in Saturday's contest. The Commodores will probably outweigh the Cats considerably and will have the advantage of playing on their home gridiron, but the Blue and White will present formidable opposition and will fight until the last whistle has blown. This fact was demonstrated last Saturday when the Cat line stiffened and held the Colonels for downs on Kentucky's

BULLETIN

Judge William Thornton Lafferty, dean of the College of Law of the University died Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Judge Lafferty's death came just at the time when this edition of the Kernel was on the point of going to press thus making it impossible to give extended notice to the achievements at this time of the eminent and beloved jurist and instructor.

AN EARLIER STORY

Judge W. T. Lafferty, dean of the College of Law, is critically ill at his home on Woodland avenue. He was stricken suddenly Monday night with an attack of lesion of the brain. To the many inquiries coming in from all parts of the state the doctors can as yet make no definite statement, ex-

STROLLERS TO PRESENT 'THE THIRTEENTH CHAIR' AT ADA MEADE NOV 16-17

Plans Being Made for Spring Production by John E. Burkes, Director

BIG AUDIENCES EXPECTED

Thursday Night Presentation for Freshmen Especially; Come One, Come All.

"The Thirteenth Chair," the 1922 Stroller play which was given in Lexington and several Kentucky towns last season, will be shown in Cynthiana Friday night, November 10, and in Lexington at the Ada Meade theater, November 16 and 17. The repeated production of the play is for the purpose of giving the Freshmen and new students an opportunity to see the ability of the student dramatic club of the University.

Last season "The Thirteenth Chair" was given at Paris, Georgetown, Richmond, Middlesboro and Pineville, besides two performances in Lexington. Later on in the winter it will probably be taken on the road again to Frankfort, Maysville and several western towns. Last year the Strollers bought their own electrical equipment which proved a great advantage in presenting the play.

The cast has been replaced with only three new members, the vacancies caused by the graduation of three members of last year's cast. The present cast in the order of the appearance is: Helen O'Neil, Frances Smith; Will Crosby, Dan Morris; Roscoe Crosby, William Finn; Mrs. Roscoe Crosby, Elenor Morse; Edward Wales, Troy Lawson Perkins; Elizabeth Erskine, Mary Peterson; Mary Eastwood, Ann Hickman; Grace Standish, Nan Chenault; Mrs. Trent, Kitty Conroy; Mr. Trent, Harry Layman; Howard Standish, Edgar Gans; Philip Mason, Earl Heavrin; -- Pollock, William Tate; Rosalie LaGrange, Mary Lyons; Tim Donahue, John Albright; Mike Dunn, -- Warren.

The Strollers are doing double work this year in presenting last year's performance again and making arrangements for a new production.

Thursday night of the coming week will be the Freshman night, and the Kernel makes a personal plea to the students to go to these performances, as the strollers are putting forth every effort to make this production the best.

GREGG

Turner Gregg, Louisville youth, made first points scored on Centre since 1916 when he kicked a 25-yard field goal in first quarter last Saturday.

Gregg is a Sophomore, playing his first year on Varsity, and has developed into one of the best field generals that the Cats have had in years.

Northwestern Man to Address Assemblage Later in Chapel of University.

The foremost event of this week on the campus of the University of Kentucky will be the annual observance of Armistice Day, November 11. It will be featured by a parade, headed by the University band, followed by battalions and their sponsors, a portion of the Lexington police force, disabled war veterans, American legion, Transylvania ex-service men, Boy Scouts, members of labor unions, war mothers, American Legion Auxiliaries and members of the Rotary, Lions, Optimist and Pyramid Clubs. The principal speaker of the day will be Dr. John A. Scott, of Northwestern University, who will speak to the assemblage at 11 o'clock at the University chapel. "Kentucky Day" will also be observed on that day with a luncheon given by the alumni of Transylvania and University of Kentucky at the Phoenix Hotel.

The parade will be formed on South Limestone street in front of the University campus and it will march from there to Maxwell, west on Maxwell to Broadway, north on Broadway to Main, east on Main to the Kentucky Theatre where the public is invited to attend the patriotic exercises to be held there. The battalion will march immediately to the exercises at the University chapel. Dr. Scott, who has been recommended to the commit-

DRIVE FOR SALE OF 1923 KENTUCKIAN TO BEGIN FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Annuals Ordered Before December First Will be Sold at Reduced Prices

PRIZE OFFERED BY STAFF

Prominent Students on Campus to Co-operate in Issuing Best Year Book

The big drive for the sale of the Kentuckian, the annual year book of the University, started Friday, November 10, and will continue until November 20. During that time and until December 1, an annual can be bought for $4.00 cash or for $4.50 by paying a deposit of $2.00 down and $2.50 on February 15. After December 1 the Kentuckian will cost $5.00. Every student who wishes to buy an annual is requested by the management to order it during the drive or by the first of December as there will be no annuals ordered unless they have been subscribed for. Consequently if you want an annual you must subscribe now.

To each student who sells as many as 50 annuals—one will be given and to the student selling the greatest number there will be a prize of $10.00 and an annual, and a second prize of $5.00 and an annual.

Prominent students on the campus have shown their interest in the book and their willingness to co-operate with the staff in making it the best annual ever presented by a class in the University.

William G. Finn, president of the Senior class, says: "To a senior, the year-book of the year of his graduation should be the greatest treasure of his college life. It holds for him a record of all the faces of the members of his class. To every other student in the University it should mean as much."

John E. Burks, director of the Stroller dramatic organization and a prominent member of the Su-Ky Circle, indorses the Kentuckian and says: "This is an epoch-making year in the history of the University. In numbers and extent of activities we have excelled any mark ever before attained. Our undaunted Wildcats are on the verge of a success that promises to surpass the good old days of "Doc" Rodes. We ourselves have seen them make the Colonels pray—and pray hard! We will always cherish the memory of that day.

"The Kentuckian is our only record of these conditions and ten years hence

ENTIRE SQUAD IN TRIM

Largest Crowd Ever Seen At Similar Conflict Expected to Witness the Struggle.

One of the most interesting games of the season will be played Saturday afternoon on Stoll Field, between the Kittens and the Centre College Freshmen. The big attraction is the fact that both colleges will be showing their varsity material for the next three years, and due to the ancient rivalry existing between the University of Kentucky and Centre College the competition is naturally very keen.

Captain Kirwan says, "We are not over-confident, but we are going to win. It will be a fight all the way through." This year we have the strongest freshman team in the south. It is said by critics that this eleven is better than any first year team seen at the University of Kentucky for some time. All this week Coaches Webb and Rodes have been running the squad through hard practice in preparation for the big game Saturday. Evans, Tracy, and Captain Kirwan are in better physical condition than when they were for the last game with the Centre freshmen. With all our former line stars back in the game we will have a combination which should easily avenge the defeat of three weeks ago.

The Kernel wishes to announce again that the entire proceeds of the game will be used in the building of a new club house to be erected on Stoll Field. All students and faculty are asked to pay admission and help the University build a club house which they will be proud to show the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Home Coming

Home Coming was all that the name implies. There was nothing formal to make inflexible the visitor's program, but on the other hand there was everything possible to be shaped to his desired ends.

Local newspapers estimated the number of "home comers" at 1,200 and the crowd at the Kentucky-Centre game at 10,000 to 14,000. Cleaner sportsmanship was never seen on a football field. The spirit of alumni and undergraduates was up to the test.

Alumni came from every end of Kentucky, from South Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. They visited with classmates, members of the faculty and townspeople, managing to crowd into the several twelve, twenty-four and thirty-six hour periods all that a city the size of Lexington could offer, plus.

As the Kernel expressed it editorially in its Home Coming edition, "The victory was ours before the dawn * * * consciousness of duty." There can be doubt no longer about the loyalty of the Kentucky alumni. The outlook was never brighter.

OUTSIDERS PLEASED

Kentucky Day Observed For Promoting Spirit of Unity.

The purpose of Kentucky Day, set this year for November 11, is to convince people of Kentucky and other states, especially the former, of the unity of purpose of the sons and daughters of the Blue and White. Such an accomplishment will react to bind closer these 20,000 who have learned from the Alma Mater how to live and to serve.

The strengthening of this "Kentucky" spirit has served already to win the interest of former residents of the state who were never connected with the institution. They have sent contributions to the Association with the expressed desire for giving some aid in its fight for a greater enlightenment within the Commonwealth.

APPRECIATION IS ART

Words of Praise and the Bonus Are Means of Expression

Lives of great men have been marked by a fixed purpose to recognize merit in others and to express appreciation for faithful service. Men in public life often do this by words of praise spoken in public. Business men have done it by the distribution of a bonus. However the means and whatever the motive the result has been usually to inspire the recipient with a new zeal to serve, to the ultimate and greater gain of the community.

On the old campus are members of the faculty who have labored for as long as forty years to give the best equipment possible to Kentucky youth at the University seeking the way to better things. They asked nothing beyond the annual stipend forthcoming from the treasurer—and that was small enough—and the satisfaction of having given faithful service.

Elsewhere, throughout this country and others, are alumni whose first thought after the care of their families is the welfare of the Alma Mater. They are "thinking, talking, acting and praying for old Kentucky." Their names and deeds are known to some fellow alumnus. Some one is ready and knows how to show the appreciation that is their due.

ALUMNI WILL ELECT

New Local Clubs Are Being Organized to Fight For Blue and White

Officers of the alumni clubs will be elected during December and January for the new year. In accordance with the provisions of the constitution nominations may be made at that time for officers of the National Association, by any alumni club, class organization or independent group of ten alumni. These nominations must be made and filed with the Secretary in time to be put on the printed ballot and distributed March 1, 1923.

Thirty-one alumni clubs have been organized to date, fourteen in other states and seventeen in Kentucky. Wherever there is a group of five or more former students, truly interested in the welfare of the University, there should be an organization. Reports received at the alumni office indicate the organization of several new clubs before January 1.

Home Economics Luncheon

The senior class of the home economics department of the University, entertained last Saturday with a delightful luncheon at the Lafayette Hotel, in honor of their alumnae members who returned for the homecoming football game. The luncheon was served in the private dining room of the hotel, and the table decorations were charming baskets of chrysanthemums.

Miss Edith Alexander of the class of 1913 presided as toastmistress, and the speakers on the program were Miss Maybelle Cornell, of the faculty, Miss Katherine Christian, and Miss Elizabeth King, of the Alumnae. About 35 guests were present.

University Women's Pan-Hellenic Banquet

A charming social function of the University life was the Women's annual Pan-Hellenic Banquet, held at the Lafayette Hotel. The tables extended in four long rows the length of the ball room, to meet the speakers table at the south end of the room at which sat the Pan-Hellenic council. Garlands of blue and white crepe paper festooned the walls and crystal chandeliers, while large baskets of chrysanthemums added color to the festive scene.

The menu cards were dainty white and gold folders tied with gold cord.

Miss Louise Connell, a member of Kappa Delta Fraternity, was toastmistress, and presided with delightful ease and grace. She welcomed the guests with a charming toast, and introduced the speakers, each of whom received enthusiastic applause in a clever address.

Following was the toast list: "Thou Shalt Have No Other Gods Before Me"—Sarah Blanding.

"The Taming of the Shrew"—Laura Hubbard.

"Midsummer Night's Dream"—Sarah Thorne.

"Arma Virumque Cano"—Frances Ashbrook.

"Good Night Sweet Prince"—Betty Barbour.

The national fraternities represented in Pan Hellenic are: Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Kappa Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma. The local fraternities are: Alpha Delta Theta, Lambda Phi, Pi Alpha Theta, Sigma Beta Upsilon.

Miss Connell was beautiful in a white lace gown with yellow girdle and her corsage was of red roses.

Lambda Alpha chapter of Chi Omega fraternity, won the beautiful silver basketball cup for the second consecutive year, and received it as a permanent trophy. Lambda Phi, local fraternity received the scholarship cup. It was accepted for the chapter by Miss Mary Bernard.

The banquet was a delightful and brilliant event, and a large number of alumnae here for the home coming game, were present.

Misses Margaret Smith, Eloise Burgess and Carlisle Chenault were guests at the Chi Omega house last week-end.

Thursday afternoon Theta Sigma Phi will entertain with an afternoon tea from four to six o'clock at Patterson Hall in honor of the girls of the department of journalism.

Dance for Alpha Theta

MAKE THE KITTENS REAL CATS

It is a pleasure to the Kernel to express through its columns appreciation of the student body to those loyal alumni and former students residing in Lexington, who have given so generously of their time, energy and money in pushing the sale of tickets to the Freshman-Centre football game to be played Saturday on Stoll Field. The net gate receipts will be turned into a fund for the establishing upon Stoll Field, an athletic club house.

Much of the success accomplished by the Freshman team is owing in a large measure to "Dick" Webb, alumni, and at present coach of the Kitten outfit, ably assisted by "Doc" Rodas. He has given not only his time and ability as a coach, but has contributed money generously in providing necessities for the team.

The Kernel prefers to believe that every student, whether he or she intends to be present at the game or not will buy a ticket for the pleasure of contributing to the erection of a long needed necessity upon our field. The clubhouse will, not only be an adornment, but will be a memorial to the fighting spirit of Kentucky as displayed in defeats and victories upon its field.

The Kittens expect to redeem themselves in this encounter over the defeat that they suffered several weeks ago on Cheek field when Centre recovered a fumbled ball on our two yard line and carried the pigskin the length of the field for the first touchdown made against the Kittens.

The Kittens are the future Wildcats who expect to gain in the future a recognized place in the athletic world, and probably gain supremacy of the gridiron. Without the whole-hearted support of the student body this can never be accomplished.

Students, buy a ticket and wear tags indicating "I have helped a Kitten become a Cat."

THE FIGHTING WILDCATS

The Centre game is over and is becoming ancient history. State lost but it was a glorious defeat and the ten thousand, more or less, spectators, who had the good fortune to witness the contest, will not soon forget the fighting spirit of the Wildcats. However, too many of us are prone to praise the Kentucky team only during the first half when we were ahead and had Danville's pride praying for a change of fortune. It was no doubt a big blow to the Colonels and a surprise to many, when Kentucky scored in the first quarter and throughout the first half so outplayed the visitors, that they were unable to score on Kentucky.

It was in the last few minutes of the game, however, that the Kentucky eleven sustained Kentucky's reputation for fighting to the end, even after hope of victory was gone. With the score 27 to 3 in Centre's favor and the Praying Colonels almost on Kentucky's goal line, the Wildcats held them back from making the goal with a human wall so impregnable that the Centre eleven with its superior weight, was unable to buck through for the desired goal.

When a team in the last few minutes of play, knowing that it is defeated still fights on with the spirit that characterized the Wildcats and holds back a team of Centre's caliber for four downs within a few yards of the goal, that battling team deserves the praise and plaudits of all champions of true sportmanship and gameness. With such a spirit characterizing the men of the Wildcat eleven, Centre had best look to her laurels in years to come.

will bring back the faces of our friends and all the situations pleasant and pathetic that bound us together as students of the University of Kentucky. Hence do not fail to get your year-book or you may have occasion to regret it."

In speaking of the year-book, Mary Royster, president of the Woman's Self Government Association, declares, "The future can hold no greater joy for us than the memory of college friendships and it is in a large measure by means of the Kentuckian that we recall pleasant associations and revisit familiar scenes."

Louise Connell, president of the Woman's Pan-Hellenic Council, says of the Kentuckian: "Surely everyone will want an annual. Such a record as the Kentuckian keeps of our happy college days should be and is very precious to us."

Birkett Lee Pribble, famous captain of the invincible Wildcats, upholds the Kentuckian and urges that more interest be taken in it. He says of the annual: "Long years after the Wildcats of '22 are gone from the University and are scattered over the continent, a time will come to us all when we will want to be back together, to see ourselves together and for others to see us together. The only way this will be possible will be thru the pages of the Kentuckian of '23. There will be the faces of the old team, of the coaches of that year, the scrubs and of scenes in big games of that year."

Eleanor Morse, of Mortar Board, says of the annual: "The Kentuckian stands for the permanent record of the senior class and should be treasured as the emblem of many happy college memories."

Pictures for the popularity section have been made and all the groups on the campus have been photographed. Work is well under way by the staff and plans are to get the annual out at an early date.

All organizations which have reserved space are expected to make deposit with Charles D. Graham by November 15. The amount to be paid is $10 for one page and $15 for two pages. Presidents of student organizations are urged to give this their immediate attention.

REGULAR MEETING

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the White Mathematics Club was held Thursday afternoon, November 2, in the Physics Building. Dr. Elizabeth LeSturgeon spoke on the Faurier Series. This theory had its origin in the discussion of the musical vibrations of a stretched string. Doctor LeSturgeon, in a very interesting manner, explained the earliest methods of attacking the problem.

Judge Lafferty is the founder of the Law College of the University, the first law college in Kentucky. He has been dean of the College since its foundation in 1907, and it is to his efforts and energy that the college owes its growth and achievements. Even a temporary loss of his services is keenly felt by the Law College, and his absence is regretted by "his boys."

SENIOR AND JUNIOR INFORMATION CARDS

Senior and Junior information cards for the Kentuckian may be dropped in the small box placed on the left of the Arts and Science mail box in the lower floor hall of the main building. Cards will be distributed among the various colleges this week. If you fail to get one, you may procure it at the Kentuckian office in the basement of the Education building. All cards must be in by November 15.

Dantzler for Morning

Chapel exercises for the Freshman class of the University of Kentucky were opened Tuesday morning with the singing of America. President Frank L. McVey read from the scriptures and led the students in the Lord's prayer. An enjoyable part of the morning's program was a beautiful solo, by Mrs. Dantzler. President McVey introduced Bishop Woodcock, of Louisville, who addressed the students.

Bishop Woodcock stated that his mission was not to give advice, which, according to his definition was, that which old men give young men when they can no longer give them a bad example. Bishop Woodcock wished to speak to the students on what they had most of and knew least about—"Learning How to Live."

Some attain success in life but few attain success of life. What good to a man is his life if he has a bankrupt soul? To drift is easy and the trouble with most nations today is the absence of a great leader. People are too indiffinite—there are too many half-hearted, indefinite, indifferent people who are willing to drift along regardless of what happens. They have not concentrated indignation.

The world is seeking people who express their education in character and service; the world is not interested in ancestry but what you can do; what can be put on record as something worth while and the individual is his best teacher.

The first step in life is the success of failure. People who become discouraged because of failure and take their lives commit the greatest crime for there is nothing worse than the suicide of a wasted life. This type is content to drift into the open sea of life to become a helpless old wreck with neither chart nor compass—they admit defeat and are therefore beyond help.

Many great men experienced failure at least once in their lives before becoming great. Rupert Hughes failed as a school teacher but later had more men under his influence than any other man. Thomas Edison as a boy had not a chance but used the obstacles in his path as stepping stones to success.

The second step in life is the blessing of discouragement. If we view life as a pessimist—who blows out the light to see how dark it is—we shall surely fail. Discouragement is simply a clear conscience reproving you for not living up to your ideals but at any rate you have not lowered them.

A self satisfied state is dangerous and only two things can result: first—stagnation of body and death—the only difference is, at death you are given a proper burial and at stagnation you profanely bury yourself; second, you get yourself into a rut which is naught but a grave with both ends knocked out. Don't be a corpse. Justify creation and Christianity. A painter who had completed his best work was sad because he was satisfied; no longer had any hope or outlook in life. A Lexington boy who lost his leg said he gave it for a clear conscience.

Men who have clear consciences what the world seeks. Men who will not fail their brothers, who will not shame their mothers, who care for country, home and God—these men express their education in character and service.

PROF. E. E. FLEISCHMAN DELIVERED LECTURE IN CHAPEL TO FRESHMEN

Head of Public Speaking Department Gives Students Interesting Talk Nov. 2.

ORGANIZE DEBATING CLUB

Plans For Debating Team To Take Trips Are on Foot

Professor E. E. Fleischman delivered a lecture on public speaking at freshman matriculation lecture November 2. He named three difficulties under which he labored: the present inadequacy of the department to accommodate more students; the reluctance to be entitled boastful of his own work; and the critical attitude of his audience toward his subject.

Public speaking has come into general disregard and disrepute. People no longer seek out a speaker but he seeks out an audience. Literary societies are neglected or kept flourishing by social events as a main interest. When one has a new idea that he wishes to convey to the people the difficulty is not in convincing them but in getting a hearing. Speaking and debating contests are rare and elicit little interest. The reason for this change lies with the speaker or the people, or perhaps both. Either the speakers lack ideas or the people are unable to bear up under serious thought. Edison says that the people are losing vigor of mind and are becoming incapable of understanding thought which go beneath the surface of things.

Probably many students are kept from continuing in college debatorial and oratorical activities in which they partook in high school from other reasons than unaptness and lack of interest. Some may be deterred by social fears, timidity, dread of ridicule, or competition, but the worst that can happen if we are defeated is an overthrow of our conclusions which is the best thing for us, for we are seeking correctness and knowledge, not avoiding it.

It must be said, however, that the present public is quick to see thru the sham of the old oratorical school with its exaggerations and unnaturalness. Also the people have become disgusted by the privilege of the platform being abused by cheap talk. However, oratory occupies a significant place in the history of the world. It has swayed millions. For realization of the real influence and heroism brought out by oratory we go to men like William Pitt and Henry Clay both of whom roused multitudes by oratory backed by indomitable will and supreme love of country.

Another reason public speaking is neglected is that many think it is a waste of time unless one expects to make it a paying profession, but it is the means of enabling ourselves to express our thoughts clearly and effectively, which attainment all desire. Each one wants to exert an influence in his sphere and to possess enough common sense eloquence to be able to speak properly at the right time. Art of speaking increases everyone's power to succeed for all technical knowledge put into practice requires persuasion which is the very essence of public speaking. Success depends in the main upon devination of human nature and the power to express ourselves so as to mold public opinion and hold the attention.

Public speaking has its cultural value as well as its practical value. It gives poise, self control, and leads to a sense of leadership. The one weakness of our educational system, the absence of an opportunity for the student to express himself in class, is fortified and strengthened by a course in public speaking. Forceful speaking is not an accomplishment available to a few born orators, for any one may attain the essential qualities by patience and honest efforts.

The Patterson Literary Society will meet Friday night at 7 o'clock, in room 304 Administration Building. Everyone interested is invited.

Roomers on first floor rush frantically and breathlessly up stairs into the front room, gasp and whisper, "Wake up, there is a man down stairs, we saw him go into the parlor as we ran up the stairs."

Dot—(half asleep) — "Well, you idiots, that's where he was supposed to go. Somebody please go down and talk to him until I get dressed. Why didn't you all wake me up before 8 o'clock?"

Chorus—"For Heaven's sake wake up, there is a burglar in the house."

Dot—" * * * what will we do—Zulus' not here and I don't know where the pistol is—and if I did know I would be too scared to shoot it—I'm more afraid of that than I am of the burglar."

The door is locked and several hide under the same blanket. Finally the footsteps of the bold and inconsiderate burglar are heard down stairs. He also slams several doors, as he promanades the downstairs apartment.

Dot—"Girls, let's get out on the porch and scream for help—or he will be up here in a minute."

Wrapped in blankets they go out on front up-stairs porch.

Chorus — "One —two —three —scream."

What the city of Lexington and its suburbs heard: SCREAMS! screams! HELP! JIMMIE SCREAMS! HELP. JIMMIE! JIMMIE. * * *

Snead (from sidewalk) — Girls don't be afraid, I'm down here and I won't let anything hurt you'all."

The fire department on Woodland avenue heard the screams and answered the call. The police patrol at the city jail heard the cry for help and rushed to the scene.

In the meantime the neighbors had come to the rescue.

The amused policemen searched the house but could not find the MAN.

Dot—"I'm sorry that we called the fire department—but thank you'll a mill-un times."

Climax

Centre and Kentucky met last Saturday for the twenty-seventh renewal of the Kentucky Gridiron Sweepstakes. The occasion was favored with a day as mellow and dreamy as willow trees seen through a purple haze. Much of the agitated eagerness attendant upon a Derby could be sensed in the atmosphere of peanuts and cigars. The kindly autumn threw its gorgeous colors generously onto the setting, which was reinforced on one side by the yellow and on the other by the blue.

The two teams rushed on the field accompanied by the usual preliminary hullabaloo. In the hearts of Kentucky men there dwelled hope. The Centre psychology was a mixture of confident disdain and half interested wonderment. The struggle began with the customary success that Centre has learned to expect in contests with Kentucky. The athletic smell had scarce commenced to penetrate the arena, however, before a reversal of form appeared. Centre was held. Kentucky took the ball and ploughed thru for successive downs. Meanwhile, the opposed crowds sputtered like flowing lava and shook like frozen jelly. Kentucky took the ball and ran it down to the position from which her quarterback kicked a field goal. The quarterback ran back from his foot-feat laughing like a prankish kid who has pulled his grandpap's whiskers. Kentucky had pulled old Centre's whiskers

"OLD TIMERS" ANSWER CALL OF ALMA MATER; 1200 AT HOME COMING

Event Held Saturday Said to Be Greatest Since 1916; Entertainments Held.

UNIQUE TRAVEL METHODS

Douglas Givens Uses Air Route To Travel Back to Scenes of Old Days

Home-coming, celebrated by the University, Saturday, said to be the greatest since 1916, was attended by more than 1,200 alumni coming from all sections of the United States.

By rail, automobile and airplane, the loyal "old timers" answered the call of their alma mater, filling the city and campus with reminiscences of their day.

The thrill of the day was furnished by Douglas Givens, former aviator, who arrived via airplane from Rantoul, Illinois, shortly before the game started. Between halves he was seen circling overhead while the joyous parade celebrating the victory over Centre in the first half was held led by Jim Server, 1922 Wildcat captain.

The nature of the home-coming was necessarily informal as the Alumni Association had made no special plans. However, a number of the fraternities entertained their alumni with reunions, smokers, luncheons, dinners and dances.

A luncheon at the Lafayette Hotel was held at noon, in honor of the Home Economics alumnae, at which an Alumnae Association was organized with Miss Marie Barkley elected as president, and Miss Elizabeth Kng as secretary-treasurer. About thirty-five home economics seniors and alumnae were present.

Owing to the informality of the home-coming a register of the visitors was not obtainable, but among the former students who came from a distance were: Herman Worshem, Buffalo; Charles Blank, Detroit; R. D. Puckett, Detroit; Charles K. Dunn, Chicago; C. C. Jett, Pittsburgh; H. L. Moore, Pittsburgh; Warner Sawyers, Cincinnati; Howard Ingels, New York; and Ira M. Nickell, Huntington, W. Va.

and it hurt. The consternated buzz of the crowd had now risen in crescendo fashion to a tumult. The yellow side was silent, and in fact remained so, until their team scored a touchdown, later in the game. During the rest of the quarter, Kentucky's plunging backs tore through comfortable breaches made by the stalwart line and swept into Centre's secondary defense, preceded by the best interference vouchsafed by a Wildcat eleven, within the memory of a Senior.

A brand new quarter began; one more disastrous to Centre than the first. The game was played in her half of the field the entire second period. Line bucks, end runs, forward passes, all her trick plays, including the notorious "lock-step shift," were introduced, but to no avail. Her field general was baffled. Her captain called a hurried conference. These efforts were futile. Her straining line was crushed and her fleet backs smothered. This first half was epochal. The yellow was outgeneraled and out-played. The crowd was a little stupefied and its response a little too anticipatory. But there was no fluke to the first two quarters. Kentucky had unexpectedly employed straight football. She had achieved her objective in the first quarter.

Centre had one man too many; the All-American Roberts. Her "Mayfield Flash" and the other "Yellow Streaks" of speed and skill were undeniably adept at the game. She undisputedly earned two touchdowns from her majestic marches down the field. Yet, this team which had benefited from the most extensive publicity campaign in modern education, won a hollow victory. Centre defeated Kentucky, but her face turned sadly from the scene, because forthwith, she realized that her day is done. Kentucky looks to her Varsity and to her Freshmen team and feels no fear for the future. Old Centre, however, must steep her feelings in the past.

U. of K. Warriors Outplay Wonder Team for Two Quarters;
Gregg Kicks Goal

Playing before the largest crowd that has ever assembled on Stoll Field the Wildcats went down in glorious defeat last Saturday when they were defeated by the Centre eleven 27-3. The score does not tell the true story of the contest for the Cats outfought and outplayed their opponents for the first half of the game, and were leading 3-0 when the second period ended. The heavier weight of the visitors told in the second half and the Colonels ran up a total of twenty-seven points.

When Turner Gregg dropped back to the twenty-five yard line in the early part of the game and booted a perfect field goal, the Cats scored their first points against the Colonels since 1916. The Cats relied on straight football for the greater part of the fray, mixing in a few passes. The Danville aggregation, however, was forced to display everything they had to overcome the Cats and used every form of attack known to the gridiron world.

If an individual star can be picked from the Blue and White representatives, Sanders should receive the honors, for the Nicholasville youth was the chief ground gainer for the Wildcats. Time after time he plunged through the Gold and White line for large gains. Gregg took a portion of the spotlight when he booted a field goal in the first quarter. The Kentucky backs seemed to have little difficulty in gaining ground during the entire contest.

Captain Roberts, Covington, Hudgins and Tanner were the luminaries for the Colonels, the work of "Red" being responsible for the Cat defeat.

The Game in Detail

Captain Roberts won the toss and elected to receive, and Pribble chose to defend the west goal. Fuller kicked off to Hudgins who returned the oval to his own twenty-five yard line. Covington made 9 yards thru the line in two plays and Roberts bucked over for the first down. Hudgins made 7 thru left guard. On the next play Hollowell threw Covington for a 5 yard loss on an attempted end run.

BLUE AND WHITE CROSS COUNTRY MEET U. OF C.

Speed Merchants of Two Schools to Compete at Ohio City
November 11.

The University of Kentucky Cross Country team will participate in its first dual meet Saturday when the Blue and White scantily clad speed merchants will perform against the University of Cincinnati sextette at Cincinnati. This will be the first real meet for the Cats latest minor sport, and the speedsters will endeavor to make this event a memorable one.

The Cross Country squad composed of Captain Porter, Gorman, Brown, Smith, Butler and Daniels, under the supervision of Paul Cooper will leave tomorrow (Saturday) morning for the Queen City. This being the first real meet of the year, the Cat squad is practically an unknown quantity. Porter, a member of last year's squad and winner of the State meet last fall, has suffered a fallen arch and will be somewhat hampered. Brown, the only other remaining member of last year's sextette, is in excellent form and is expected to do much toward bringing the laurels home. Gorman, Butler, Smith and Daniels are new men on the squad and Saturday's event will test out their mettle in the field.

The team has been somewhat weakened by the loss of Hendricks, Soph star, who has been ruled ineligible on account of the one year rule. He finished well to the front in the Inter-Class meet and was expected to be one of the foremost speed merchants this year.

ATHLETIC CLUB HOUSE
WILL BE BUILT SOON

Alumni, Faculty, Students and Lexington Merchants Aid in Making Donations

As a result of the enthusiastic co-operation of the faculty of the University of Kentucky, the alumni, and the student body, it now appears evident that an athletic club house will soon be erected on Stoll Field.

The Alumni of the University came before the Athletic Council and agreed to guarantee $10,000 on the gate receipts on the game to be played Saturday, Nov. 11, between the Kentucky Wildcat Kitchens and the Centre - Lieutenants, if they take charge of the game, advertising, etc.

A committee, piloted by J. White Guyn, has been appointed to advertise the game and who already has visited the faculties of the four colleges of the University. Each faculty has agreed to take a page for $100 in the souvenir program that is to be distributed at the game. In addition, merchants and business men of the town are contributing to the fund and advertising in the program.

At a meeting of the students, held recently, the student body unanimously decided to disregard their student tickets for this game and to pay $1 admission.

If enough money is realized from the game, plans will start immediately for the erection of the proposed club house. No definite plans have as yet been adopted, but it is rumored that the athletic club house, if built, will be a building that will reflect due honor and credit to the alumni, faculty and students who are making every effort to see their hopes realized.

VARSITY GIVEN ROUSING
SEND-OFF TO NASHVILLE

Blue and White Squad Makes
First Trip of Season to Play
Vanderbilt.

Su-Ky did its work valiently Thursday night and led a throng of students and well wishers to the station to give the football team a good start on its trip to Vanderbilt. Led by the band and the cheer leaders the Kentucky rooters went through the whole list of their songs and cheers. Every member of the team began his journey with the thought that the crowd that saw them would be just as anxious to see them return bringing a Vandy scalp tied to his belt.

Thursday was the first time this year that the students have had a chance to send the team on a real trip as it is the first time the Wildcats have left their cage for a lengthy prowl. The trip to Georgetown called for no great display but the rooters made up for it all in helping the team start for Vandy.

Another pep meeting and the preliminaries were over before the "scrap" between the Kittens and the Centre freshman squad. Torches and all manner of noise making devices are to be brought out Friday night by the students. As the varsity team will be too far away to enable their supporters to cheer them along, all of the cheers and attention will be heaped upon the Kittens for the weekend. Everything that is usually done to help the Wildcats win their battles will be done for the Freshmen, in an effort to assist them in getting revenge for the two defeats handed State by Centre this year.

Proceeds of this game are to be used as a nucleus for a fund to build an athletic club house on Stoll Field.

Y. M. &amp; Y. W. NOTES

Mr. H. V. McChesney, Senator, from Frankfort, addressed the largest gathering of men and women students that has been present this year, at the joint meeting Sunday evening at Patterson Hall. Mr. McChesney, much gratified, said that he had no fear for the future success of students, who, after a day as strenuous as Saturday, turned out so well for the meeting on Sunday evening.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet held its monthly meeting with its advisory board Thursday afternoon in White Hall, with Miss Jewell as hostess.

Very soon posters will appear about the campus advertising Co-Ed Stunt Night, which is to be staged in chapel by the Y. W. in the near future. Men will be welcome to come.

Every Thursday night at 10 o'clock sandwiches will be sold in each of the three dormitories of the Y. W., the proceeds to go toward the support of a Near East orphan. Eat that they may eat.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT NOTES

The Men's Glee Club of the University will hold its first regular practice in room 302 of White Hall, Sunday, November 12, at 3:30 p. m.

There is every indication of the fact that this year the student body will be able to boast of one of the best, if not the most excellent glee clubs in the history of the University. However, if the students who can help the organization, fail to attend the rehearsals, the club will be unable to reach the high measure of success it can and should achieve. Consequently, Professor Lampert, musical director, is desirous of having the best in musical talent on the campus lend a willing hand to the Glee Club and help put it over.

Two long tours are being planned for the organization next spring and Professor Lampert is anxious to begin the arrangement of program for these concerts. But he states that he will be unable to do so until he observes what matter there is on hand with which to rehearse.

The members of the club and those who are lending their aid to it have no small amount of labor on their hands in hoping to make the University's best harmony group this year if they recall the clubs of 1920 and 1921. Nevertheless, this year, it seems, will be Kentucky's greatest in all endeavors, and if those musically capable lend their utmost aid, the Glee Club will not be failing.

CENTRE DEFEATS WILDCATS

Hudgins then made 9 yards for Centre's last first down in the first half. Hudgins again attempted to pierce the Cat line but fumbled and Pribble recovered. Two line plays and a pass failed for Kentucky and Fuller punted 32 yards out of bounds. Roberts made 6 thru the line, then the Cat forwards held and forced Covington to punt. Herb punted 30 yards out of bounds. Sanders made 15 thru the line for first down. Gregg dropped back to the 25 yard line and booted a perfect field goal for the first score of the game. Fuller kicked off to Hudgins who was downed on his own 21 yard line. The Cats held the Colonels for three downs and Covington punted 50 yards to Gregg who was tackled in his tracks by Snowday. After gaining 21 yards the Cats were forced to punt and Fuller kicked 29 yards. On an attempted shift play Hudgins failed to gain. Covington also failed to pierce the Cat defense and the quarter ended with the ball in Centre's possession on their own twenty yard line. Score, Kentucky 3 Centre 0.

Centre tried the lock-step and lost one yard. Covington punted 30 yards to Gregg. After two passes failed Fuller punted 33 yards to Hudgins. Incomplete pass. Covington punted 34 yards to Gregg who returned 8 yards. Sanders made 8 yards in two line plunges and Ferguson went off tackle for 5 more and first down. Fuller lost 15. A pass Fuller to Pribble netted the Cats 5 yards. Gregg failed to gain and Fuller punted to Covington who returned 15 yards. A pass Covington to Snowday was grounded, and another, Covington to Lemon failed. Covington kicked 22 yards. Sanders made 1 thru the line. A pass Gregg to Fuller was grounded by Hudgins, then Fuller made 7 around left end, Fuller punted to Covington who returned 15 yards. Covington made 5 yards in three attempts and then kicked 25 yards to Gregg who returned 4. Sanders made 2 in two attempts. Kubale intercepted a Kentucky pass. On the next play, Ferguson intercepted a Centre pass and returned 10 yards before he was downed. Kentucky was penalized 15 for holding. Ferguson made 12 around right end and Kentucky was again penalized 15 yards for holding. Sanders made 8 in two attempts and Fuller kicked 42 yards to Covington who returned 22 yards. Roberts made 5 in two attempts and the half ended as Hudgins vainly tried to pierce the Cat line. Score, Kentucky 3, Centre 0.

The Colonels came back into the game in the second half a new team and in sixteen plays bucked over for a touchdown, Roberts carrying the oval. Fuller kicked off to Covington who returned 22 yards before he was downed. Centre then started a determined march toward the Cat goal and by a succession of line plunges and tackle plays, coupled with a pass Covington to Snowday, that netted the Colonels 20 yards, had the ball on Kentucky's 1 yard line. Roberts then bucked over for Centre's initial marker. Lemon made a place kick in the try for goal. Score, Kentucky 3, Centre 7. Roberts kicked off to Sanders who returned 20 yards. Fuller lost 1 in two attempts but Centre was off sides on the next play and the Cats were given first down. After three practically vain attempts to gain, Fuller punted 20 yards out of bounds.

Centre's ball on their own 31 yard line. Covington made 2, and Lemon ran 26 yards before he was tackled on an end around play. Tanner made 7 in two attempts and Covington made 16 around end for first down. After six plays Roberts bucked over for the second marker. Lemon kicked goal. Score, Kentucky 3, Centre 14. Roberts kicked off to Gregg who returned 15 yards. After making 21 yards in six plays Fuller punted 40 yards to Covington who returned 10. A pass Covington to Snowday failed as the half ended with the ball in Centre's possession on their own 19 yard line.

The heavier weight of the visitors became more evident and the Centre backs had little trouble in gaining ground, although the Cat forwards held the Colonels for downs on the 2 yard line. Late in the period Coach Juneau took several of his regulars out. The Centre eleven scored twice in this period, once on a line plunge by Tanner and then on a 30 yard pass Covington to Hudgins. Lemon kicked goal after the first touchdown but Covington missed a drop in the second attempt. Soon after the fourth period opened Covington got loose for 32 yards on a fake kick play and a penalty for Kentucky and a 7 yard plunge by Roberts put the ball on Kentucky's 2 yard line. Tanner plunged over for the touchdown. The fourth Centre marker came three minutes before the end of the game when Hudgins received Covington's long pass over the goal line. Covington's attempt at goal failed. Score, Kentucky 3, Centre 27. Fuller kicked off to Covington who returned 30 yards. A succession of plays brought the oval to Kentucky's two yard line where the Colonels hit a brick wall and were held for downs, the ball going over. A Centre pass failed as the final whistle blew, ending Kentucky's gridiron classic.
